The budget totals were available for review and comment. No municipal road projects were budgeted to be undertaken for the fiscal year. Comments were made by the following individuals:

Susan Arnold commented that she wanted EDA to be funded this year due to the help it brings to the community.

Davis Lee Downs requested that EDA not be funded and sited a poll in the Spencer Magnet that 89% of the respondents were not in favor of it.

Commissioner Nation stated that EDA could not operate on only $30,000 and that street projects needed more funds.

Mayor Pay asked how EDA planned to operate on $30,000 without county funding. EDA Director Annette King deferred comment until the regular city commission meeting.

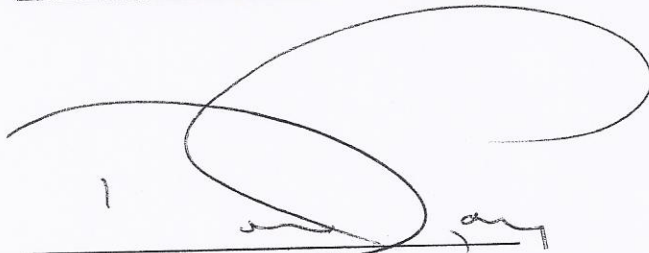

Commissioner Nation made a motion to put the $30,000 into the street budget. Clerk Biven stated that the proposed budget could be amended during the first reading of the ordinance.

The validity of the poll taken by the Spencer Magnet and the poll taken the following week showing different results (67% not in favor of disbanding EDA) was discussed by Susan Arnold and Davis Lee Downs.
